Weekly Notes:

BENTLEY: Kim Brennan's 23 points against Franklin Pierce was the most for a Bentley freshman and guard since Lauren Moore had the same number against American International in 2004. Bentley's six-game winning streak matches it's longest since a nine-game streak in 2004. Bentley, following its 50-46 win over Le Moyne Saturday, has won the last 200 games in which it has allowed less than 50 points, a streak that dates back to 1977.

FRANKLIN PIERCE: Sophomore forward Johannah Leedham set a school-record with eight three-pointers in the win over Southern New Hampshire (8-11 3FG)

UMASS LOWELL: Sophomore guard Rahshala Valentine eclipsed the school record for assists in a single game with 14 in last week's 76-67 win over Merrimack. Valentine's effort edged the previous record of 13 set by former UMass Lowell standout Marsha Blalock on Nov. 17, 1997.

SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT: Senior forward Kate Lynch notched her 1,500th career point against American International on Saturday, becoming just the second player in school history to tally both 1,500 career points and 500 career rebounds. Also on Saturday against American International, senior forward Rochelle Johnson became the 12th player in school history to collect 500 career rebounds.
