Weekly Notes:

AMERICAN INTERNATIONAL: With her first basket against the Greyhounds, senior Alexis Castro reached the 1,500 point milestone for her collegiate career.

BENTLEY: Barbara Stevens is two wins away from becoming the sixth NCAA women's basketball coach to amass 750 career victories following Saturday's 59-58 win over Bryant. As a program, Bentley is three victories away from becoming only the second in NCAA Division II history with 800 wins all-time.

FRANKLIN PIERCE: Sophomore All-American Johannah Leedham moved into 16th place on Franklin Pierce's career scoring list with 1,036 career points (46 games) on Saturday, moving past Mary Parker (1978-82) who totaled 1,028 career points. Leedham also moved into a tie for seventh in program history with 174 career steals, joining Juanita Brown (1995-99) with that total.

PACE: Senior guard Stephanie Klingele became Pace's most prolific three-point shooter passing former Pace player Andrea Padelsky's record of 214. Klingele's three trifectas against Saint Anselm gives her 217 for her Setter career. The Setters tied a team record for three-pointers in a game with 13 against St. Anselm repeating a record that was done earlier this season in a win over American International in November and also on January 31, 2004 in a win over Saint Rose.
